

The Summit School Presents:

An Evening with Ellen Weber Libby, Ph.D.

author of

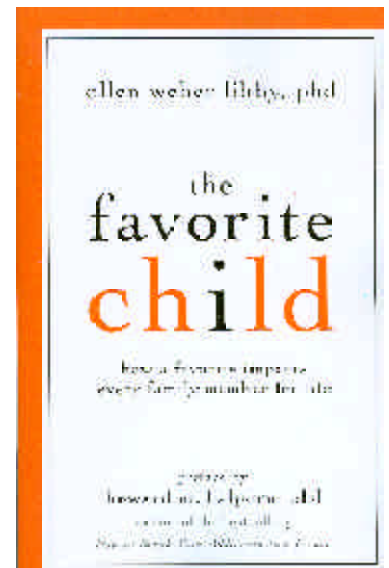

The Favorite Child

Monday, March 15, 2010

7pm ~ 9pm

On the campus of The Summit School
664 East Central Avenue, Edgewater, MD 21037

For more than 30 years, clinical psychologist Ellen Weber Libby, Ph.D. has been helping successful, often powerful clients, deal with their personal problems. One pattern that Libby has identified after spending some 60,000 hours treating her clients is what she calls "the favorite child complex." In her groundbreaking book, The Favorite Child, Libby shows how being the favorite child can confer both great advantages and significant emotional handicaps.

"This book is a must read for all those interested in the growth of healthy productive, children."

- Howard M. Halpern, Ph.D., author of How to Break Your Addiction to a Person

"All of us who have a sibling, or know someone who is, owe Libby much gratitude for transforming her decades of experience and insight into this well-written, well-organized and highly illuminating book."

- Rachel Jacobsohn, author of The Reading Group Handbook

Since completing her doctorate from the University of Maryland in 1977, Dr. Ellen Weber Libby has devoted her professional life to fostering the psychological well being of individuals, couples, and families at her private practice in Washington, D.C.

Prior to beginning her private practice, Dr. Libby was the clinical director of a mental health center and on the faculty of the University of Maryland. Additionally, Dr. Libby has served on the Board of Directors for The Summit School since 2001.

Admission is free and the public is welcome. Pre-registration is requested.

The Favorite Child* will be available for sale at this event.
