

SYMPOSIUM S E R I E S

2018 - 2019

Edgewater, MD

PRESENTED IN HONOR OF ZELMA WYNN

For nearly 15 years, The Summit School has been hosting symposiums that deliver relevant, research-driven information to the community.

Please note, Summit will offer CEUs through ASHA and CPDs through NASP.

The Summit School invites you to become a Partner School.

We look forward to working with you to deliver this exceptional programming.

Smart but Scattered:

Executive Dysfunction at Home and School

8 am—4 pm

664 Central Avenue East

Edgewater, MD 21037

Understand how executive skills – the cognitive processes required to plan and organize activities, follow through on tasks, and self-regulate – impact daily living and school performance.

Learn assessment strategies, how to design interventions for improvement and when and how to employ coaching as a strategy to support executive skill development.

Questions: Please contact Nancy Rhodes at Nancy.Rhodes@thesummitschool.org or 410-798-0005 x147.
